THE FARMER'S COW SPONSORS FOOD SCHMOOZE EVENT WITH JACQUES PEPIN AND NPR'S FAITH MIDDLETON

Lebanon, Connecticut, May 28, 2009 – The Farmer's Cow, local dairy farmers providing Connecticut-produced fresh milk, cream and other products, is proud to sponsor "An Afternoon with Jacques Pepin & Faith Middleton" on Saturday, June 27 at 4pm. The event with the world-renowned chef and iconic Connecticut Public Radio host will be held in Haddam and will feature a locally-inspired menu from three premier Connecticut chefs: Tyler Anderson of Copper Beech Inn, Leo Bushey of The Hartford Club, and Rich Lucas of Bosc Kitchen and Wine Bar.

"We are thrilled to be able to sponsor this exciting affair because it supports one of our missions to showcase all that Connecticut agriculture has to offer," says Robin Chesmer, Managing Member of The Farmer's Cow. "Connecticut chefs, Connecticut-sourced food for inspiration, and Connecticut Public Radio will combine to make for a memorable afternoon."

In addition to great food and conversation, Jacques Pepin will give a dramatic demonstration, using Julia Child's Moet Chandon sword to open a bottle of champagne. Tickets for the event are $150 per person or $250 per pair. Reservations can be made by contacting Connecticut Public Broadcasting at (860) 275-7540 or emailing Amy Williamson at awilliamson@cptv.org
